

THE FAMILY OF DANIEL PORTER,
"the bonesetter"

at
Farmington, Connecticut
1650 - 1690

and
Some Of His Descendants

Thru the line of his son Nehemiah Porter

This material is far from being in a finished form but this brings together all the known information we have at the present time. Hopfully this will help organize what material we now have available, and facilitate further research.

NOTE: I do want to express my personal appreciation, and the appreciation of other Porter Family members to Mrs. David (Helen) Ransom of the Connecticut Historical Society, 1 Elizabeth Street, Hartford, Connecticut 06105 for without her invaluable help and kindness this material could never have been put together. She has spent so much of her own time on days off helping to gather material, I never even knew existed and she has visited other towns and gotten deeds etc, which I was unable to get by mail. To her we say THANK YOU!

DANIEL PORTER FAMILY

1. DANIEL 1 PORTER, was a physician in Farmington, Ct. from about 1650 to 1690, when he died there. As early as 1655, and for many years thereafter, he was in the employ of the Connecticut Colony as a surgeon, receiving money and lands for his services. Where or when he was born, or whence he came to Farmington, I know not. Robert and Thomas Porter, ancestors of Porter lines were his contemporaries in Farmington, and possibly his relatives. The will or rather the deed of gift, by which his property went to his wife and children, dated August 15, 1688, probated April 9, 1690, is in the Hartford Probate Court. He left a wife, Mary, whose surname I have not yet found. She was, I think the mother of his seven children, viz: Daniel, Mary, Nehemiah, Richard, Ann, John, and Samuel. # (#Porter Genealogy by Henry E. Burton, Middletown, Conn. 1896)

In a Porter Genealogy called A Genealogy of the Descendants of Richard Porter who settled at Weymouth, Mass. and Allied Families by Joeseeph W. Porter of Burlington, Maine 1878

He lists a number of Porter Families including Daniel Porter.

"Robert and Thomas Porter, brothers, were of the eight^{four} proprietors of Farmington, Conn. in 1640. The first named was ancestor of President Noah Porter, of Yale College."

"Daniel Porter, surgeon, of Farmington, Conn. before 1653, said by one authority to have been a brother of Robert and Thomas, of that town."

In further researching I have found that Robert Porter of Farmington was supposed to have come from Stratford, Conn. In another account I found that Thomas Porter was supposed to have come from Stratford, Conn. However in the Genealogies taken from History of Stratford & Bridgeport, Volume 3, by Orcott, pg.1272, none of the three, viz; Robert, Thomas or Daniel appear in the records. However there is a Nathaniel Porter with wife Elizabeth who would also be a contempory of the three found in Farmington.

At a genealogical meeting held on Nov. 20, 1980 at New England Historical and Genealogical Society, at Greenwich, Conn. Mr. David Sumas gave a speech on Probate Records and Mrs. Helen Ransom of West Hartford, Conn. sent me a few notes on his speech. PROBATE: "Early on in the towns there was usually a general record book which had everything in it-tax, vital, church, general goings-on. BOND: - Until bond was filed, the man could not act. Only the executor or administrator can bind the estate. In early times there was no incentive to close the estate if everyone was happy. Many files began with a "certificate of appointment" and ended there.

HEARING BEFORE THE COURT: The details were necessary. Real estate was cheap. Personal property was very valuable. The itemization was necessary. It covered the executor - however it may not always have been right. It was an estimate of land. The inventory put a dollar value on everything. If there was fighting among the family members, then a public auction was held. The real reason for the listing of the names of the children was the proof of the sanity of the man - if he could remember the names of his children - then he was deemed sane.

A man had no right over his wife's land unless there was a child. Dower right - the widow's right in her husbands estate whether a child or not. At common law a widow had dower to squat- to use 1/3 of real estate during her widowhood or life. No ownership implied or meant. "

4. NEHEMIAH 2 PORTER, born in Farmington, Ct. 24 Oct. 1656, mar. Hannah Lum of Woodbury, and d. in 1722.†
Nehemiah married 21 Jan. 1687 Hannah Lum, perhaps the daughter of John Lumm. She was baptized at First Congregational Church in Woodbury, May 31, 1685. (Ch. Rec.) and died 17 May 1710 (S-1969)

Nehemiah was the son of Daniel Porter and his wife Mary. In land records his father was called Daniel Porter the "Bonesetter" referring to his occupation as a physician.

Nehemiah lived in Kensington Parish, Farmington, Hartford County, Ct. and was one of the founders of the Church in Kensington Parish. To date we have not been able to locate any church records of Kensington Parish.

Nehemiah probably lived in Kensington Parish because this is the place that his father, Daniel, left him land in his will.

"To my son Nehemiah Porter I give my 20 acres of Land in the Greap Swamp, also my Division of Land adjacent to the Great Swamp."

KENSINGTON was a community and Ecclesiastical Society - the north west section of the town. Earlier names, Great Swamp and Farmington Village. Earliest record of name 1710, General Assembly. Farmington Village, commonly called the Great Swamp... "The name of the village shall be called Kensington. Church organ at Kensington in 1712 as the Second or Great Swamp Society of Farmington. The East Society was split off in 1722. The Kensington Society was finally dissolved in 1922. "There is no authentic record why the name Kensington was chosen or who suggested it; the link with Kensington, England, is unknown." The latter was the residence of Queen Anne's Court, ca. 1710.

PORTER SWAMP: A road to the old mill was attempted ca. 1650 through Porter Swamp which was to be a continuation of Meadow Lane.

No mention in this volume of Kensington Church or Cemetery. The cemetery with the early Porters in it is called Old Farmington Cemetery. - Conn. Place Names, sent by Mrs. Helen Ransom.

Nehemiah and Hannah had nine children and their birth dates and names are to be found in Genealogical Dictionary of New England by Savage in a reprint published in 1969 with corrections and additions, on pages 462 and 660. Indicated in text as (S-1969)

The information on Nehemiah's children sent to me from Savage, by Mrs. Anne Frary Lepak of Port Richey, Florida says there is also information on Nehemiah in TAG 40:214. She also says she has nothing on Daniel, Thomas and Robert Porter being brothers.

Nehemiah died in 1722, sometime between the date of his will which was 23 May 1722 and the date it was probated on 2 Oct. 1722 in the Hartford Probate Court. †. A copy of his will and inventory follows.

Page 36 (Vol. XIII) 8 November, 1738: Nathaniel Winchell of Farmington informed this Court that he purchased 1-3 part of a lott of land in sd. Farmington of the heirs of Nehemiah Porter of Farmington, which lies in common with Daniel Woodruff and Doctor Samuel Porter's heirs, of which one is a minor, viz., Samuel Porter. Sd. lott of land was laid out on the right of Doctor Daniel Porter of sd. Farmington deceased, and lieth in a division commonly known by the name of Shuttle Meadow Mountain, and bounds south on a highway, north on land of the heirs of the Rev. John Hart of Guilford deceased, and the land lies in common or joynt tenancy as is above mentioned and with Mr. George Wilton of sd. Farmington. Nathaniel Winchell prays this Court for a division. This long and involved lists of Nehemiah Porter's personal property and real estate gives us some insight into the life of our ancestor. The kinds of material things our ancestor had accumulated during his life. He inherited 20 acres of land from his father but in his inventory he had over 163 acres of land which he left to his children and apparently had in addition given land to his sons Jonathan and John before his will was written.

The people of those days did not have a lot of education as we would judge them by today's standards. They spelled words the way they sounded. Kettle was spelled cettel; coat was cote, bell became bel, etc. Nehemiah's will was evidently written by someone else and he signed it with his mark. Possibly because he was too sick to write his name out and perhaps he did not know how to write his name. However we do find that his inventory listed six Bibles and divers Divinity Books so he must have been able to read. Note also the will is written in the old style spelling, viz, all words with an s in them is written as an f. Where two s's appear in the same word together the first s is always written as an f, thus the word necessary is always spelled necefsary. As a whole the material was well written. The worst and most illegible material was that written by Judge Joseph C. Tallcott of the Probate Court of Hartford. I have tried to give the exact spelling etc of the original records and I underscored words I was not sure of.

I am including all the material I have available on Nehemiah Porter's children. Some I have a lot, others not much, but in order to make it easier to find the children I am going to give them all in a group and then follow this with information on each child. Few of Nehemiah's children appear in the Vital Records or Church Records of Farmington, but the following list with the dates are taken from Genealogical Dictionary of New England by Savage from a reprint with additions and corrections published in 1969.

Nehemiah Porter of Farmington and his wife Hannah Lum had the following children:

9. JOHN 3 PORTER, son of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) Porter was born probably at Kensington Parish, Farmington, Connecticut, on 11 Jan. 1688.

John Porter of Kensington married 3 Dec. 1713 Hannah (Peck) Hopkins widow of Joseph Hopkins. She was the daughter of Paul Peck and Elizabeth Baysey. John was admitted full communion First Church 5 Dec. 1714.

He lived in Farmington Parish after his marriage as all of his four children are found in the birth records of Hartford, and he was living in Kensington when he made his will dated 18 Feb. 1735-6. CHILDREN:

10. MARY 3 PORTER, daughter of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) Porter was born probably at Kensington Parish, Farmington on 16 Sept. 1689. She probably died young as she is not named in her father's will made 23 May 1722.

11. MARTHA 3 PORTER, daughter of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) Porter was born probably at Kensington Parish, Farmington on 28 January 1693. In her brother, Samuel Porter's will dated 28 April 1733 she is called, "Martha Porter, alias Ashman. Evidently she married but nothing more is known of her.

12. HANNAH 3 PORTER, daughter of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) Porter was born probably at Kensington Parish, on 11 May 1694. She was named in her father's will made 23 May 1722 and received her share from his estate. She apparently was married at this time as Nehemiah left "unto my grandson, the son of my Daughter Hannah, I give the young mare I bought of Sergt. Isaac Hart."

Hannah is also named in her brother, Samuel Porter's will made 28 April 1733 and he stated: "I give unto my sister Hannah Porter, alias Castle, 1/6 part of it"

* 13. THOMAS 3 PORTER, son of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) was born in Kensington Parish, Farmington 25 Dec. 1697. Thomas does not appear in the Farmington Church Records but his birth is recorded in the Farmington Vital Records. His wife's name was Hannah and he died in Middletown, Ct. 16 Dec. 1754. (Middletown Vital Records) More on this family to follow.

14. JONATHAN 3 PORTER, son of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) Porter was born 28 April 1700. He was an executor of his father's estate along with his brother Thomas and he possibly was married at the time his father made his will 23 May 1722, as he had already been given land by his father before the will. The only other information available at this time is found in the Julius Gay Manuscript at the Connecticut Historical Society. According to this material Jonathan died in 1754 and he married Mercy or Marcy Winchil 23 Sept. 1730 (Middletown V.R.) They had four children:

- i Samuel b. 9 Aug. 173
- ii Eldad b. 18 May 1737
- iii Asa b. 15 Sept. 174 (0) -last figure added in pencil by someone-else.
- iv Ruth b. 5 Oct. 1731; d. 28 Oct. 1757 (Middletown V.R.)

15. SAMUEL 3 PORTER, son of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) Porter was born at Kensington 16 July 1702. From his will it appears that Samuel was not married when he made his will on 28 April 1733 and his will probated 1 May 1733 leaves the greatest part of his estate to his six brothers and sisters. A copy of his will follows:

I also give unto my brother Thomas Porter 1-6 part of it. I also give unto my brother Jonathan Porter 1-6 part of it. I also give to my sister Martha Porter, alias Ashman, 1-6 part of it. I give unto my sister Hannah Porter, alias Castle, 1-6 part of it. I also give unto my sister Rachel Porter, alias Hancox, 1-6 part of it. And I appoint my friend, Lt. should not be enough of the moveables, the sd. George Hubbard in the will was named executor, which trust he refused, when the Prerogative Court for the District of Hartford did appoint him Adms., the moveables were not sufficient to discharge the debts, and of necessity the legacy should be paid out of the real estate to the sd. Mercy, who is now the wife of Daniel Smith of the Parish of Kensington, according to the true intent of the will of the sd. testator, I, George Hubbard, Adms., have set out to sd. Daniel Smith and Mercy his wife, in right of the sd. Mercy, 1-2 of a certain lott of land of which the sd. testator and one Amos Porter, of Middletown, stood seized at the death of sd. testator. The sd. Amos's share or right is now belonging to Jonathan Edwards, about 14 acres more or less. Inventory price, £18-15-00, and is to be accounted at that price in part of sd. legacy.

16. RACHEL 3 PORTER, daughter of Nehemiah and Hannah (Lum) Porter was born at Kensington Parish, Farmington, Hartford Co., Ct. on 28 March 1704. She and her brother Matthew are the only two of Nehemiah's children to be found in the Farmington Church Records. which says Rachel was bp. 12 Jan. 1706/7.

Rachel married Daniel Hancox, son of Thomas and Rachel (Lenerd) Hancox, both of Farmington 4 June 1724 by William Wadsworth, J.P. (Farmington Vital Records)

Daniel was born 1 January 1694/5 (FVR), and he witnessed the will of his brother-in-law John Porter of Kensington Parish, Farmington, Hartford Co., Connecticut dated 18 Feb. 1735/6 and his wife Rachel also received 1/6 part of the estate of her brother Samuel Porter of Kensington by will dated 10 March 1732/3.

Daniel Hancox of Middletown sold two acres more or less with a house on it to Thomas Porter of Kensington, a brother of his wife Rachel, "Reserving unto himself the use and improvements of the northward half of said house and ye porch chamber and ye northward half of said two acres of land during the natural life of his Honored Father, Thomas Hancox."

The Hancox Family of Farmington

In the attempt to find our Porter Family we did some research on the Hancox Family. Thomas Hancox of Farmington, Ct. married Rachel Lenerd of Springfield, 17 March 1684/5 and he died 11 July 1734 (FVR)

We do know that Thomas was still alive on 13 day of Feb. 1729/30 when his son Daniel Hancox sold the above mentioned property to Thomas Porter. From the Farmington Vital Records the following children of Thomas and Rachel (Lenerd) Hancox are taken.

- i Thomas b. 13 Mar. 1685/6 Deceased by 15 Oct. 1737 date of his sister Rachel's will
- ii William b. 2 March 1690/1 (perhaps 1 Mar.) His brother Daniel was appointed Administrator of his Estate on 5 Dec. 1721. He had no will and left no wife. His estate was distributed to his brothers and sisters viz; Rachel Hancox, John Hancox, Mabel Barnes and Daniel Hancox. Says William Hancox, late of Farmington (Hartford Probate Records)
- iii Rachel b. 7 Feb. 1692/3. Rachel of Kensington, a single woman made will 15 Oct. 1737 and an inventory of her estate taken 19 Dec. 1737. She names her brothers John Hancox of Springfield, Daniel Hancox of Kensington and only sister Mabel Barnes, wife of Ebenezer Barnes, Sr. of Farmington.
- iv Daniel b. 1 Jan. 1694/5 who married Rachel Porter
- v John b. 1 Aug 1688 (He should be listed as the second child)
- vi Mehitable b. 4 Dec. 1698. She probably is the Mabel Barnes who had land set aside to her 7 Dec. 1725 from estate of her brother William Hancox. Mabel Barnes was the wife of Ebenezer Barnes, Sr.

The next three pages contain a copy of the wills of William Hancox and his sister Rachel Hancox, a single woman.

17. MATTHEW 3 PORTER, son of Nehemiah Porter and his wife Hannah Lum was born at Kensington 1 July 1710. (Savage) bp. 2. Oct. 1709 (Farmington Ch. Rec.) Evidently died young as he was not named in his father's will 23 May 1722.

13. THOMAS 3 PORTER, son of Nehemiah 2 Porter and his wife Hannah Lum, was born in Kensington Parish, Farmington 25 December 1697. Thomas is not found in the Farmington Church Records however his birth is recorded in the Farmington Vital Records. His wife's name was Hannah and her ancestry is unknown. When their children born in Middletown in the vital records they are called the children of Thomas and Hannah Porter. Whether he married at Kensington or in Middletown is unknown. Thomas's death is recorded in Middletown Vital Records as 16 Dec. 1754, where he is called Thomas Porter, Sr.

Thomas Porter inherited fourteen and one-half acres of land when his father died. These were described as follows:
4 acers and $3/4$ of Land in ye great Lott next Middle tonne (Middletown) bounds

6 acres of Land in ye home lot lying between Thomas Jonathan Porter and Samuel Porter on ye north side of River running cross ye lot east and west.

3 acres & $3/4$ in ye said lott butting north on same and south of ye river.

Thomas inherited a total of 61 pounds, 10 shillings and one pence from his father's estate, which included the above parcels of land. He and his brother Jonathan were the Executors of their father's estate, which was settled in March of 1723.

Thomas Porter remained in Kensington Parish until he purchased of Daniel Hancox, his brother-in-law and husband of his sister Rachel, a parcel of land in Middletown, consisting of two acres with a house. This deed was signed on 13 February 1729/30 and reads as follows on the following page.

Little is known about Thomas Porter and his family at Middletown. I have written for all deeds of Thomas Porter but the Clerk refuses to go back in the records and copy deeds. However, Mrs. Helen Ransom made a trip to Middletown and did bring back copies of two deeds. The deed on the next page and a deed when William Porter, son of the above Thomas sold the same parcel of land to his brother Thomas. There does not appear to be any will for Thomas Porter either.

The Middletown Vital Records contain no mention of this family except the death of Thomas Porter, Sr. and the birth of the following children:

18. William, son of Thomas & Hannah b. 17 Mar. 1731

19. Thomas, son of Thomas & Hannah b. 15 Nov. 1732

We know absolutely nothing about this Thomas except that on 26 July 1760 his brother William sold his interest in the land purchased by his father Thomas Porter from Daniel Hancox.

Thomas' wife Hannah was still alive when her son William died in 1774 for in his will we find this item; "And as to my Honored Mother it is my Will that my wife together with my Two oldest sons, viz, Elishama and John shall maintain her honorably during her natural life."

18. WILLIAM 4 PORTER, son of Thomas and his wife Hannah was born at Middletown, Ct. 17 March 1731, and died at Town of Hartland, believed to be in the Hamlet of Hartland, Litchfield Co., Conn. 13 June 1774. His wife was Ruth but her ancestry is unknown.

The earliest mention of William is found in the Hartland First Congregational Church Records 1768-1913, when they first organized their church. William Porter and his wife Ruth were original church members when the church was organized May 1, 1768. In the same list is marked "William and Ruth Porter o. c. May 1, 1768." "owned the covenant" This o.c. I am told meant they were really dedicated to the church.

On 4 May 1780 a new church was formed called the West Hartland Congregational Church, because it was so far for some people to go to church. This church remained a viable church until 1890. In this church record we find more of the Porter family. William's wife Ruth is listed as a member on 9 Jan. 1782 and it says she died a widow 10 March 1788.

Most of the information we have been able to find on the children of William and Ruth are found in these two church records.

The first land which William purchased in Hartland was 20 acres of land which he bought from Simon Baxter of Hartland on 12 July 1759, calling him "William Porter "late of Middletown" a part of lot 47 which Baxter had purchased from Moses Cadwell.

William Porter purchased a total of 10 parcels of land in Hartland as follows

1. 20 acres	12 July 1759	Proprietors Rec. p. 138
2. 3 "	9 July 1761	Vol. 1, page 31
3. 25 "	26 Aug. 1767	Vol. 1, page 186
4. 38 "	28 Sept 1769	Vol. 1, page 295
5. 35 3/4 A.	22 Dec. 1769	Vol. 1, page 212
6. 45 more or less	16 Jan. 1770	Vol. 1, page 296
7. 107 1/4 acre	14 Feb. 1772	Vol. 1, page 346
8. ? not given	11 Jul. 1772	Vol. 1, page 326
9. 25 acres	10 Aug. 1772	Vol. 1, page 318
10. 28 more or less	23 Nov. 1773	Vol. 1, page 381
327 acres plus one extra parcel.

William Porter sold a total of 7 parcels of land in Hartland before his death on 13 June 1774 as follows:

1. 23 acres	11 April 1769	Vol. 1, pg. 189 #1 & 2 above.
2. 25 "	4 Feb. 1771	Vol. 1, pg. 277 #3
3. ? "	26 Nov. 1772	Vol. 1, pg. 341
4. 53 1/2 acre	11 Mar. 1773	Vol. 1, pg. 352
5. 28 acres	23 Nov. 1773	Vol. 1, pg. 378
6. 25 acres	7 Oct. 1773	Vol. 1, pg. 467 -
7. ? acres	13 Apr. 1773	Vol. 1, pg. 473
154 acres more or less plus two parcels.

The proof that William Porter was the son of Thomas and Hannah Porter of Middletown is found in the following deed, dated 26 July 1760 when William Porter of Hartland sold to "my brother Thomas Porter of Middletown" for the sum of fifteen pounds all interest he had in a piece of property in Middletown. The description of this property is the same as the property Thomas Porter of Kensington Parish, Farmington purchased of Daniel Hancox on the 13 day of February 1729/30, in Middletown.

For each transaction I have given the date of the deed, not the date recorded.

For most transactions the Lot number was written in on the margin of the deed at a later date. And there were also, in most cases, another number than the page number given. I would guess this might be the page number of the original records from which these records were hand-copied.

I trust I have made no errors.

HARTLAND CHURCH RECORDS

Our Porter Family does not show up in the Vital Records but the Hartland Church Records seem to be the only place where information can be found on our family. All of the Porter names found in these records belong to the same family, and the proof that they are all one family is found in the will of William Porter, and two deeds of his son Thomas Porter.

In his will William Porter names his family in this order:
Wife - Ruth (She may or may not be the mother of all of his children.- first mention of her is in ch. record. May 1, 1768)

Children:

Elishama - who married Mrs. Elizabeth Benjamin
John
Thomas - who married Phebe Leavit
Hannah - who married Allyn, possibly Nathaniel Allen.
Abigail - who married Alexander Stewart
Ruth - who married Ebenezer Barnes, Jr.
Rachel - who married William Barnes
Electa

I am including the church records from the two churches in Hartland, Litchfield County, Connecticut which lists this family. These records including the original records are found at Connecticut State Library.

A HISTORY OF THE SECOND ECCLESIASTICAL SOCIETY
and
THE SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF HARTLAND, CONNECTICUT

By Stanley A. Ransom

I, H. B., in the words of the founders, for the following reasons:

"We, whose names are herewith annexed, having our habitation by divine providence in the western part of the Township of Hartland, being by law an incorporated civil Society, where by reason of too great a distance, we can not with convenience steadily enjoy Communion in the special ordinance of the gospel, with any regular organized Church of Christ, deeply sensible of the high importance of such communion and earnestly desirous of it, and to that end would be formed into a distinct and particular Church of Christ by ourselves and thereupon unitedly and cordially embrace as matter of our firm belief the several summary doctrinal articles contained in the following Confession of Faith, and fully consent to the Church Covenant thereunto subjoined." (The Confession of Faith and the Church Covenant being practically identical with that given in the History of the First Church and Society, is omitted here.)

The names of those signing for the Second Society are as follows:

Reuben Hale	Abner Bushnell	Prince Taylor, Jr.
James Hungerford	John Wilder	Samuel Crosby
Benoni Beach	John Bates	Daniel Ensign
Reuben Burnham	Joseph Wilder	Jacob Cowdry
Hezekiah Atkins	Simcon Crosby	Elezar Ensign
★ Elishama Porter	Asa Smith	Israel Williams
Ephraim Wilder	Abel Brace	James Markham

It is interesting to note that all of those signing were males - it was a man's world in those days - but after thinking it over apparently it was considered that some of the women were also worthy of salvation and at a later meeting 23 of them were admitted to membership although their names are not given. (It was 107 years later before any

This church was known as the West Hartland Congregational Church 1779 - 1899. In this church list a large number of the Allen family is listed and the following four entries are found - possibly being Hannah Porter and her husband.

On the following page is a picture of the Pewter Communion Service used by the members of the Second Congregational Church in Hartland beginning in 1780.

This would be the communion set which was used by some of the Porter Family. The following family members all used this communion service.

Mrs. Ruth Porter - widow of William Elishama Porter and his wife Mrs. Elizabeth Benjamin and possibly her three children by a former marriage.
Abigail Porter
Rachel Porter
Thomas Porter and his wife Phebe Leavit
Hannah Porter and husband Nathaniel

The only Porter appearing in the HARTLAND, Births-Marriages - Deaths 1761-1848 in the Barbour Collection at the Connecticut State Library 1927 is the following. P.23

PORTER, William, s. Thomas & Phebe b. May 16, 1790;
d. June 25, 1791.

In the Vital Records of Granville, Massachusetts to the Year 1850 we find the marriage of two of William Porter's daughters as follows: Page 146

In L. Barbour, EARLY HARTFORD MARRIAGES, we find this entry: Page 463.

WILLIAM PORTER

William Porter of Hartland.

Children:

Rachel bp. June 11, 1767 (1 Cr. Rec)

18. WILLIAM 4 PORTER, whose wife was Ruth on 1 May 1768 had eight children as follows:

- 20. i Elishama who mar. Mrs. Elizabeth Benjamin
- 21. ii John
- 22. iii Thomas
- 23. iv Hannah who married Mr. Allyn or Allen
- 24. v Abigail who married Alexander Stewart
- 25. vi Ruth who married Ebenezer Barnes, Jr.
- 26. vii Rachel who married William Barnes
- 27. viii Electa - possibly died young.

From here on will try and include all materials we have on each of the above children, except for the son Thomas.

20. ELISHAMA 5 PORTER, the son of William Porter was born probably in Middletown ca. 1751 and he died in Town of Hartland 18 Aug. 1825 at the age of 74 (2nd. Cong. Church Record)

He married at Hartland, 28 May 1778 Elizabeth Benjamin (West Hartland Cong. Ch. rec. or 2nd. Cong. Ch. rec.) the widow of Asher Benjamin, who died 2 Jan. 1777, aged 25 years Elishama and Elizabeth were both of Hartland when they were married.

Elizabeth had three children by her previous marriage to Asher Benjamin I. On 4th. July 1784 these children, George, Asher II, and Lois were baptized at the West Hartland Congregational Church.

In the 1790 Census Elishama was listed as Elisha Porter with 1 male over 16

0 males under 16

2 females

It would appear from this census that at least the sons Asher and George did not live with them after their marriage. However, in 1791 Elishama Porter took out guardianship papers for Asher who was about 17 years old.

In the 1800 census Elishama is also listed as Elisha with 2 males under 10

1 male 25-45

1 male 45 and over

1 female 16-26

1 female 45 and older

In the 1810 Census, Elishama is listed in Hartland, Hartford Co. in the Index, and again in the 1820 Census as Elisha. Elishama died in 1825 and neither the name Elisha or Elishama is found in the 1830 Census.

We do not believe Elishama had any children which grew to adulthood, and perhaps no children at all, as his will names no children, only Elizabeth's children.

WILL

ORIGINAL WILL OF ELISHAMA PORTER, HARTLAND, CT. Probate District Granby, Ct. State Library, Hartford, Ct.

Presented for Probate Dec. 28, 1825.

Presented by Samuel Porter (He is unknown to us)

File #1351

1. To ELIZABETH, wife - free use of all my lands and buildings all of her life and then they go to.

2. The heirs of my son-in-law, Asher Benjamin one half of my lands, buildings and properties.
3. The other half to my daughter-in-law Lois (Thing?) could not make out last name.
4. I give my wife ELIZABETH all my moneys, property of every sort at her own disposal without any reservation.

Son-in-law ASHER BENJAMIN of Boston to be executor.

Witnessed by John ?

Abigail Treat

25 December 1812.

This will was presented for probate by SAMUEL PORTER because ASHER BENJAMIN declined. Neither the widow, next of kin, or any creditors having appeared. Samuel was appointed administrator. Apparently it would seem that between the time ELISHAMA made his will in 1812 and when he died in 1825, he had become insolvent so there was nothing to leave to anyone. What happened? Especially when he was the son of William who got such preferential treatment in his father's will. - Mrs. Helen Ransom.

STATE PARK AND FOREST

Even before the Water Bureau of the Metropolitan District Commission had indicated its designs on Hartland Hollow, the State Park and Forest Commission had acquired sizeable areas of Hartland acreage for forest and recreational use. In 1921 the State Park and Forest Commission was by legislative act empowered to acquire land for public owner-

Typical of the abandoned homestead of the early 1900's. This house located in South Hartland Hollow may have been the boyhood home of Asher Benjamin.

Asher Benjamin II was an early author of the first book published in America devoted to building and architecture.

In the Annual Report for 1978 of HISTORIC DEERFIELD, INC. Deerfield, Massachusetts, page 7, we find this note concerning their library.

"A most exciting addition to the Rare Book Collection of the Henry N. Flynt Library is a group of ASHER BENJAMIN architectural pattern books. They belonged to the colonial revival architect Aymar Embury II, who first brought Asher Benjamin to 20th. century notice as an important early American architect. Purchase of these important volumes was made possible by the generosity of Samuel B. Payne, Mrs. William C. Schoettle, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Atwood."

CHAPTER VII

Biographical Vignettes

ASHER BENJAMIN

The name, Asher Benjamin, may mean little to those who are unacquainted with the history of early American Architecture and the development of the building profession as it expanded in the Colonial period.

His fame evolves from the fact that he is the author of the first book published in America devoted to the subject of building and architecture. This book, entitled "The Country Builder's Assistant", published in Greenfield, Massachusetts in 1797, became the "Builder's Bible" of the day. (The writer has in his possession a copy of Asher Benjamin's book, entitled "The Practical House Carpenter"; the title page states that it is "published in Boston by the author, R.P. and C. Williams and Anni & Smith, 1830", the author being "Asher Benjamin Architect". It also states that he is the author of "The American Builder's Companion" and "The Rudiments of Architecture".)

His reputation as an architect and an author of note on architectural subjects is secure. The extent of his activities was great and comprised such notable examples as: The stairway of the Old State House in Hartford; the Academy at Deerfield, Massachusetts; a number of Beacon Hill houses in Boston; Center Church, New Haven; the Meeting House in Windsor, Vermont; the Coleman-Hollister house in Greenfield, Massachusetts; Alexander house in Springfield, Massachusetts, and many other similar examples in New England and elsewhere.

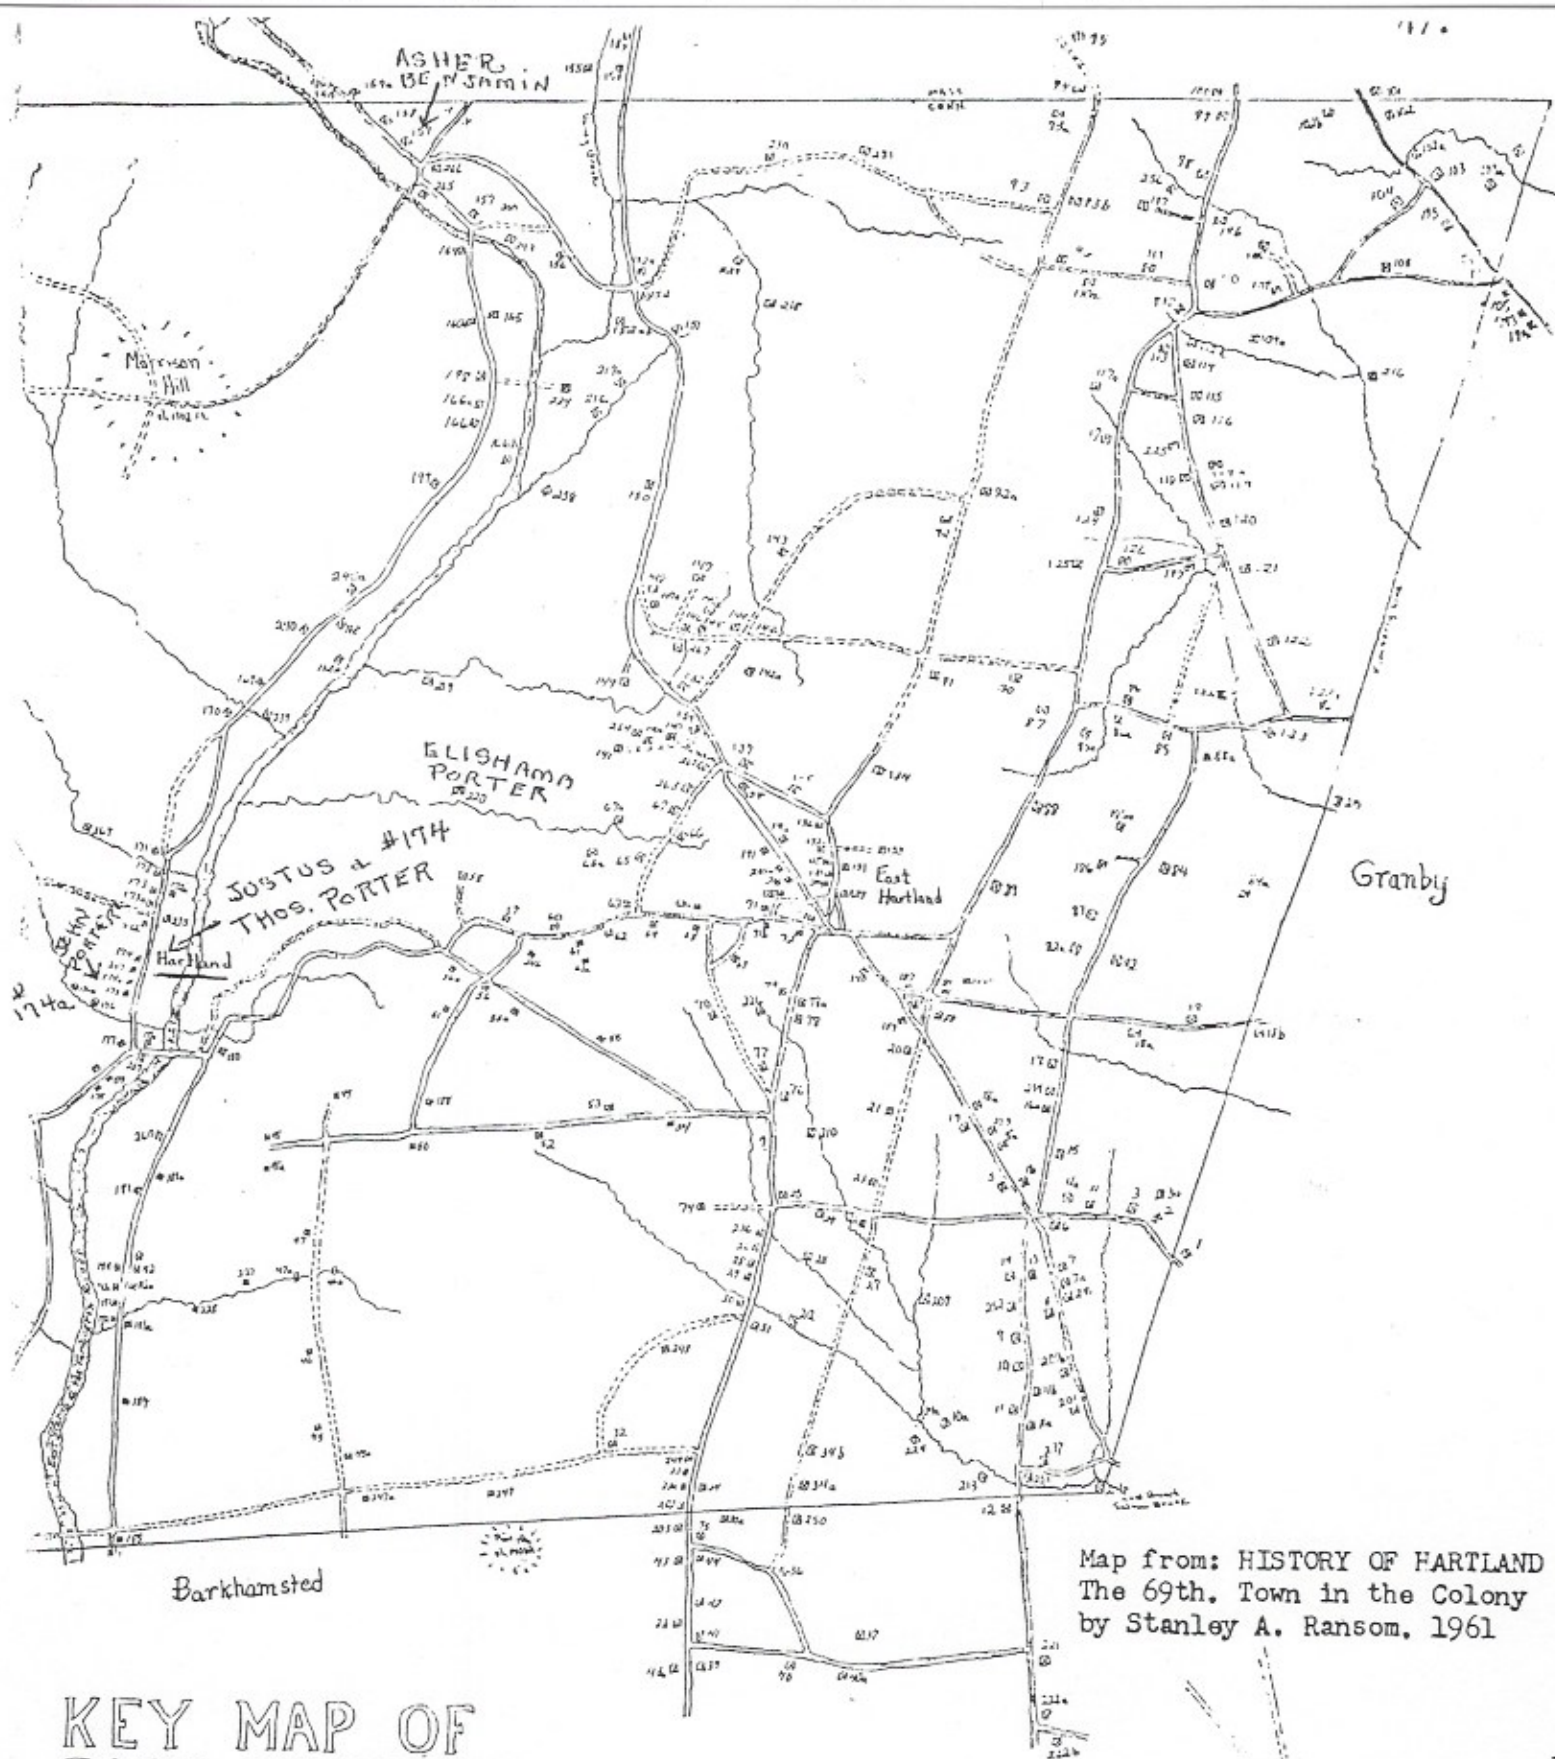

Asher Benjamin II was born in Hartland, Connecticut, in 1773, (the exact date being unknown), the son of Asher Benjamin I and Elizabeth Benjamin. For some years Samuel Benjamin, grandfather of Asher II, had been settled in Granville, Massachusetts; just over the state line from what later became North Hartland Hollow. When the first division of Hartland was made, the 49th Lot became the property of Thomas Olcott, and this section was devoted to a combination of farm and mill-sites, it being directly south and adjoining the Granville property of Samuel Benjamin. Samuel Benjamin bought the Hartland property from Thomas Olcott and built a house on it which became known as the Benjamin Farm. Asher Benjamin I was living on the Hartland Farm and also working in the mill at various times when Asher II was born. There seems to be no deed on record of where Samuel Benjamin transferred this property to his son, Asher I, but on the grand levy of Hartland for the year of 1774, Asher Benjamin is assessed at £21, and for the year 1775, his assessment was £23, 6-d, indicating that the property must have been in his name (Key III-159). He is also listed as being one of the Hartland men participating in the Revolutionary War. Asher Benjamin I died January 2, 1777, aged 25, leaving his wife, Elizabeth, and three young children, George, Asher, and Lois. (While the documentation is incomplete, there is little doubt that Asher Benjamin II was born in Hartland, Connecticut.)

Elizabeth, widow of Asher I, subsequently married Elishama Porter who lived in South Hartland Hollow (Key III-220 approx.). He was originally a member of the First Society in East Hartland, but when the Second Society was formed on the West Mountain in 1780, he was one of the original subscribers to the "Covenant and Confession of Faith" of the Second Society. On page 47 of the Second Society's Record Book, under the heading of "Baptisms", is the following entry: "July 4th, 1784.—George, Asher and Lois, children of the wife of Elishama Porter by former husband", which indicates that Asher II was approximately eleven years old at the time.

The Probate Records (District of Simsbury) show that Elishama Porter was officially appointed guardian of Asher Benjamin II on August 15, 1791, stating Asher's age as "a minor of about seventeen years". It would appear that Asher was still living with his step-father at that time.

His formal education must have been intensive and acquired within the next few years after 1791, for by 1800 he had already become distinguished in his chosen field.

Hartland is proud to claim Asher Benjamin II as one of its native sons whose fame, as an architect and builder, rests upon the influence he brought to bear upon others in his profession in developing the late Colonial style of architecture.

21. JOHN 5 PORTER, probably the second son of William was probably born in Middletown, Ct. died in Hartland 7 June 1777. He was a member of First Congregational Church in Hartland and was adm. com. 11 Feb. 1776, and his death record is recorded here.

According to the History of Hartland there were three men by the name of Porter who fought in the Revolutionary War from Hartland. These were found in the ROSTER OF OLD CONTINENTAL ARMY, Company 17 as follows:

Capt. John Porter H.H. 174a

Private Justus Porter, East Hartland #174

Private Thomas Porter, East Hartland #174

The number following their names designates the house on the map of West Hartland found on page 42. See where John Porter's, Thomas Porter, Elishama Porter and Asher Benjamin lived. I believe this is probably our family, as the deeds from our Thomas Porter would indicated this was the area as it speaks in many of the deeds as being between the river and the road. Who this Justus Porter was I have no idea, but he seemed to be living in the Thomas Porter home.

A copy of the Bond and Inventory of John Porter of the Town of Hartland dated 1777 No. 2330 is found in the Simsbury Probate District, & at the Connecticut State Library.

The Bond for John's Estate appointed Elishama Porter as Administrator of the Estate, and he and Oliver Bates both of Hartland gave bond in the amount of two hundred pounds, on the 8th of December 1777. No will was found, however it appears from Deeds of land for Thomas Porter that John's land was divided amongst his brothers and sisters 1/6 to each.

On the outside of this Inventory Sheet this was written. "An Inventory of the Estate of John Porter, Late of Hartland dec^d and under Oath accepted and ordered to be recorded and kept on file in manner accustomed."

also this note ".....of so much of ye real Estate of ye Dec^d as will raise ye sum of viz so of ye land on ye North of ye Farm belonging to ye Estate of ye Dec^d and extend ye whole length of ye same."

It appears that part of the land was sold to pay off the balance of the debts and it may be that Elishama purchased this land.

22. THOMAS 5 PORTER, the son of William Porter was probably born in Middletown, Ct. and died in Ohio or Indiana in 1808 to 1810. He married in Hartland, Ct. 31 Aug. 1786 Phebe Leavit. (this family to be continued) (See page 54)

23. HANNAH 5 PORTER, the daughter of William Porter was probably born in Middletown, Ct. She probably was the oldest daughter as she is named first in her father's will. We know very little about her, except from deeds of Thomas Porter her brother. In the West Hartland Congregational Church of Hartland there appear a number of Allen family members. One such entry gives Hannah wife of Nathaniel Allen was admitted to communion 17 Feb. 1782 and she died 1 Aug. 1782. Her husband Nathaniel was adm. com. 3 Mar. 1782 and he died 13 June 1784. Very possible that they had children which lived in the same vicinity as Thomas Porter, and his brother John Porter. The name of Titus Allen is mentioned in connection with one deed. (see deeds of Thomas Porter)

On the 9 May 1791 Thomas Porter received a Grantee Deed from Ebenezer Barnes, Jr. and his wife Ruth (Porter) Alexander Stewart and his wife Abigale (Porter) and William Barnes and his wife Rachel (Porter) "our rights to the real Estate of John Porter as a son of said William Porter, also our right to Real Estate of Hannah Alling and what we received under the will of our Honored Father William Porter."

On the following 10 Aug. 1791, Elishama Porter deeded to his brother Thomas Porter two parcels of land one being, "the sixth-part of the Land that was my Sister Hannah Allyn, deceased." This is all we know of this daughter of William Porter.

24. ABIGAIL 5 PORTER, the daughter of William Porter was admitted to communion in West Hartland Congregational Church in Hartland 4 Sept. 1785 (W.H. Cong. Ch. rec.)

She married 3 Jan. 1788 Alexander Stewart (Steward-C.R.1) at Granville, Mass. This found in Graville V.R.

In the 1790 census they were living in Granville, Mass next door to her sister Rachel who married Ebenezer Barnes, Jr. as follows:

Stewart, Alexander 1 male over 16
 2 males under 16
 4 females

Abigail probably was the second wife of Alexander Stewart as all these children in the 1790 census could not have been hers, unless she was married previously which is doubtful. We do know she was deceased before the 9 May 1791 when Alexander Stewart signed the deed to Thomas Porter in behalf of his wife Abigale, deceased.

25. RUTH 5 PORTER, daughter of William Porter was the wife of Ebenezer Barnes, Jr. and was living in Granville, Mass when she and her husband signed a deed selling her interest in her father's estate to her brother Thomas Porter on 29 June 1791.

In the 1790 Census of Granville, Hampshire Co., Mass. we find the following:

Ebenezer Barns, Jr. 1 male over 16
3 males under 16
2 females.

On one side of Ebenezer Barns, Jr. was his father-
Ebenezer Barns 1 male over 16
1 male under 16
4 females

On the other side was Alexander Stewart who mar. Abigail Porter, a sister of Ruth with

1 male over 16
2 males under 16
4 females.

From the above census records it looks like Ruth and her husband Ebenezer Barnes, Jr. must have had 4 or 5 children. Nothing more is known of this family.

By tradition, our Thomas Porter #22 had two sisters or two half-sister who married men by the name of Barnes and this tradition has proven true as Ruth #25 and Rachel #26 both married men by the name of Barnes.

Mrs. Albert Jack who is a descendant of Rachel has given me a little Barnes History and with what she has given me along with Church Records from Middletown, I believe that Ruth's husband Ebenezer Barnes, Jr. and William Barnes husband of Rachel Porter were own cousins.

THE BARNES FAMILY - MIDDLETOWN, CT.

The earliest records of any Barnes found in the Church Record is an Elizabeth Barnes of the Church of Christ of New Haven on 25 June 1678. Mrs. Jack tells me "Three of my early Barnes" were born there: Thomas (1647), Ebenezer (1697) and Phineas (1744). For some reason the missing link, Maybee (1663) was born in New Haven."

The Middletown Church Records contain 298 Barnes entries and from these I have put together the ancestry of these two Barnes men who married Porter sisters.

Mabee (Maybee) Barnes and wife Elizabeth Stow are first found in this record in 1691 and 1692. Their children with their baptismal date is given below:

i	Nathaniel	Jan. 3, 1691
ii	Elizabeth	Apr. 16, 1693
iii	Samuel	July 14, 1695; d. 1781 age 86.

26. RACHEL 5 PORTER, dau. of William and Ruth Porter was bp 11 June 1767 (1 Ch. Rec -Early Hartford Marriages by Lucian Barbour). She died 16 Jan. 1845, age 78 (Gravestone Record) and is bur. at West Granville Cemetery, Granville, Mass.

Rachel married at Granville, Mass. 28 April 1791 William Barnes. They were both of Hartland, Ct. at the time of their marriage. (Vital Recors Granville & Church Records).

William Barnes was born at Granville, Mass. 7 Oct. 1766, (G.R.) and died at Granville 18 April 1841, ae 75. He is buried in West Granville Cemetery. (G.V.R.)

William Barnes and his wife Rachel Porter had the following children: Names found in Tolland, Mass. Church Records.

(there may have been others)

* Marcus Barnes viii given above is the great great grandfather of Mrs. Albert S. (Blanche) Jack, R.D. #1, Box 202, Kent, Connecticut 06757. Most of the information on the family of Rachel Porter and William Barnes was sent by her from her own family records.

27. ELECTA D. 5 PORTER, the dau. of William and Ruth was bp 24 March 1771. (1 Cong. Ch. of Hartland). She was named in her fathers will made 21 May 1774 but I can find no other reference to her. I believe she was deceased by 1791 when Thomas Porter, her brother, purchased land in Hartland. The deeds named all of his brothers and sisters except Electa.

There is a possibility that Electa was deceased by 7 June 1777 when her brother John died. His estate was divided into six shares. We know Elishama, Thomas, Abigail, Ruth and Rachel all got shares of John's estate, and if her sister Hannah who married Nathaniel Allen did not die until 1 Aug. 1782, she would have inherited the 6th. share.

Thus I believe she must have been deceased by the time her brother, John, died in 1777 or at least by the time of the settlement of his estate and the division of his property.

22. THOMAS 5 PORTER, the son of William Porter probably was born in either Middletown or else in Hartland, Conn. To date no birth or baptismal or Vital Records have been found for him.

By tradition from a grand-daughter Almira Porter Hemenway, he died in 1808 on a preaching trip and was buried in an unmarked grave near Ft. Wayne, Indiana. In the History of Rock County, Wisconsin published in 1879 on page 807 it says in an account concerning his son Philo Thomas Porter that "his father was killed and scalped by Indians in Maumee" (Ohio) and in an old newspaper clipping, with no date and no paper's name, found at the Bartlett Museum in Beloit, Wisconsin it says: "Philo Thomas Porter as a child in Ohio saw the Indians come to a field where his parents were working and saw them scalp his father." Another branch of the family by tradition puts his death about 1810-1811.

Maumee refers to the town of Maumee in Ohio near Toledo. The Maumee river also runs from Maumee to Fort Wayne, Indiana and was a favorite transportation route in the early days.

In the Historical & Biographical Record of Wood Co., Ohio Published by C. W. Evers and J. H. Beers 1897 page 361 in an account by Mrs. Hester Green we find this: "I moved to the Maumee Rapids, in 1810, with my father Daniel Purdy, from the State of New York. There came with us from the same place, with their families, Wm. Carter, Andrew Race (son-in-law of Carter), Mr. Hopkins, Stephen Hoit and Mr. Porter." Whether this is our Thomas Porter or not we do not know. However Maumee Rapids lies just below the town of Maumee.

Thomas 5 Porter married Phebe Leavit, both of Hartland 31 August 1786. (West Hartland Cong. Ch. Rec.) Phebe's parentage is unknown but by tradition she was the only child and her parents both died about 1763 when she was about two or three years old. Whether Leavit was her real name or the name of the people who raised her is unknown. Also by tradition Phebe was a Mayflower descendant according to Almira Porter Hemenway a grand-daughter. She probably is a descendant of William Leavitt, of Tittleworth, County of Essex, on the East Coast of England. He had four grandsons, who were all brothers, namely, John, Josiah, Thomas and William who all settled first in Dorchester, near Boston. The story has been handed down that they came on the Mayflower which had brought to Plymouth the Pilgrim Fathers eight years earlier. This would have had to have been the second boat named the Mayflower as the first boat was sold for salvage in 1624 in England.

Phebe Leavit was born ca. 17 March 1841 and died at New London, Huron County, Ohio 17 Sept. 1761, age 80 yrs. 6 mo. (Gravestone) She is buried in Miller or Butterfield Cemetery just north of New London, along with a son Aurora.

In the History of Hartland, The 69th. Town in the Colony of Connecticut, by Stanley A. Ransom 1961, he gives information

View of East Hartland Cemetery showing millstone used by Titus Hayes to grind grain for Revolutionary Soldiers and grandchild of the historic Charter Oak, dedicated June 17, 1930.

— Courtesy Lewis S. Mills

about Hartland's Patriotic Celebration and Dedicating of a Bronze Tablet on a millstone (1930) in East Hartland, Ct. Cemetery. With this he gives the Roster of Old Continental Army, Company 17 (Revolutionary War) which included these men named Porter:

Capt. John Porter	H.H. 177a	(? Hartland Hollow)
Privates - Justus Porter	E.H. 174	(East Hartland)
- Thomas Porter	E.H. 174	(East Hartland)

See the Map Of Hartland on page 47 which locates these houses. Mrs. Blanche Jack also writes that, "In 1774 the 17th. Regiment was Litchfield, Goshen, Torrington and Winchester; while the 18th. Regiment was Symsbury, New Hartford, Hartland, Barkhamstead, and Colebrook."

Whether this Thomas Porter above is our Thomas Porter is not known, however he is of an appropriate age, and from the description of the deeds of land he purchased and sold in Hartland the descriptions parallel with the general location on the map for house number 174. Several of the deeds speak as being "bound on the North and South Road" and a couple references are made to being bound by the River on the East which makes the location similar to that given on the Map of Hartland.

For over sixty-one years various members of the Porter family have tried to trace the ancestry of our Thomas Porter without success, or positive proof of parentage, but at long last the proof is to be found in two deeds for land in Hartland which names his father and his brothers and sisters and then the will of his father William Porter.

The first mention we have found in Connecticut, to date, of our Thomas Porter is when he was admitted to Communion 7 Nov. 1784 in the West Hartland Congregational Church in Hartland. Here he married his wife, Phebe Leavit on 31 Aug. 1786 and she was adm. com. 10 July 1791. Also the baptismal records of their first two children are found here.

On 22 August 1785, just one year before his marriage, Thomas purchased two parcels of land totaling 32 acres for the sum of sixty two pounds and ten shillings in the First Division of Hartland. These are only two of the twenty deeds recorded for Thomas Porter at the Town Clerks Office at East Hartland, Conn. between 22 Aug. 1785 and 5 Dec. 1791, which included nine Grantee Deeds and eleven Grantor Deeds. A copy of all of these deeds are to be found on the end of Thomas Porter material.

On the 9th. May 1791, Thomas purchased for the sum of Thirty pounds from Ebenezer Barnes, Jr. and Ruth (Porter) his wife, Alexander Stewart in his own and in behalf of his late wife Abigail (Porter), and William Barnes and his wife, Rachel (Porter) all of Granville, Mass. "all the right estate that was given to each of us by the last will of our Honored Father, William Porter ...also all our right to Real Estate of John Porter, son of William and all our right to real estate of Hannah Alling (Allen) dau. of William. (See Page 61)

On the 10 Aug. 1791 Elishama Porter sold "to Thomas Porter, my brother" a piece of land bought from Town of Hartland and 1/6 part of my sister Hannah (Allyn) deceased and 5/6 part of my brother, John Porter's lands in Hartland. (See Page 62)

None of these deeds specify any amount of land. Just their right and interest in lands of their Father, William Porter, brother John and sister Hannah's estates.

On 5 Dec. 1791 Thomas Porter in consideration of one hundred and sixty pounds sold to George Frederick Miller of Hartland and Cyrus Miller of Farmington two pieces of land lying in the First Division of Hartland, containing a total of sixty-five acres of land and "my dwelling house." (See Page 68)

This is the last record we find of Thomas Porter in Hartland and probably at this time or shortly after Thomas took his family and started west to Ohio.

Thomas left the Congregational Church and by tradition he was an itinerant pioneer Baptist preacher and exhorter in Ohio. One other branch of the family says he was a Methodist circuit rider, however I have been unable to find proof that either is correct.

Thomas and Phebe had at least one son born in New York State 23 October 1795 according to 1850 Census of Ohio and family bible records.

Thomas's widow Phebe, her daughter Betsey Scribner, a widow with a three year old daughter Polly; and Phebe's two sons Aurora and Philo Thomas Porter all arrived in New London, Ohio in 1815 and made their home here for many years.

The only other record I have been able to find of Thomas in Connecticut is the 1790 Census of Litchfield Town, which included Hartland and eleven others.

Thomas Porter - 1 male over 16	(Thomas)
1 male under 16	(baby William)
3 females	(Phebe, Betsy, and perhaps a sister of Thomas's.)

Thomas and Phebe were the parents of four children and possibly another son, as follows.

- i Betsey bp. 2 Dec. 1787; (West Hartland Ch. Rec.)
mar. 1st. Paul Scribner, 1 dau. Polly.
mar. 2nd. Francis Keyes at New London 18 July, 1819. Died in Cincinnati, Ohio after 1850 Census.
- ii William bp. 18 July 1790; d. 26 June 1791. (Ch. Rec.)
born 16 May 1790; d. 25 June 1791 (V.R. Hartland)
- iii Aurora b. Conn. (1850 Census) ca. 1792; d. unmarried
New London, Ohio 8 Dec. 1851 AE 59 years.
- iv Philo Thomas b. 23 Oct. 1795 (Bible Rec) in N.Y. (1850 Census); d. in Clinton, Turtle twp. Rock County, Wisconsin 30 May 1876. He mar. Polly Miner and they had ten children. (I have almost all of the these descendants)
- v By tradition another son, name unknown who got left when the flatboat tied up at night when they were on their way West to Ohio, because he did not get back to the boat in time. He probably born some place between 1791 and 1794 with Aurora being born in this same time slot, ca. 1792-93.

Mrs. Maude Keuzenkamp,

501 East Tenth St.

Greenville, N.C.

Dear Cousin Maude;

Thinking that perhaps you had rather have a prompt though brief response to your somewhat delayed letter, than a more extended communication at some uncertain future date, I am going to take amoment right now to reply to your letter which was received this morning.

Truth of the matter is, the first of the year is a rather busy time for me. However, I was pleased to hear from you and to learn something about your moves and doings. And I shall hope to hear from you again before another eighteen years rolls around.

But to come to the point of your letter, I will have to say that I cannot be of much help to you unless you are able to give me the ancestry of Jefferson Davis. * If you can uncover the nmes of his parents, grandparents, great grandparents, etc. together with places and dates of births, marriages and deaths, I will see what I can find.

While I have not been able to follow the direct Porter line back as far as some others, yet I am of the opinion that if the relationship you mention exists, it is likely through some maternal line. I have never heard this mentioned before, though I have been told that our great great grandmother Porter had a Mayflower ancestry, which I have not yet been able to confirm.

Will hope to hear from you further.

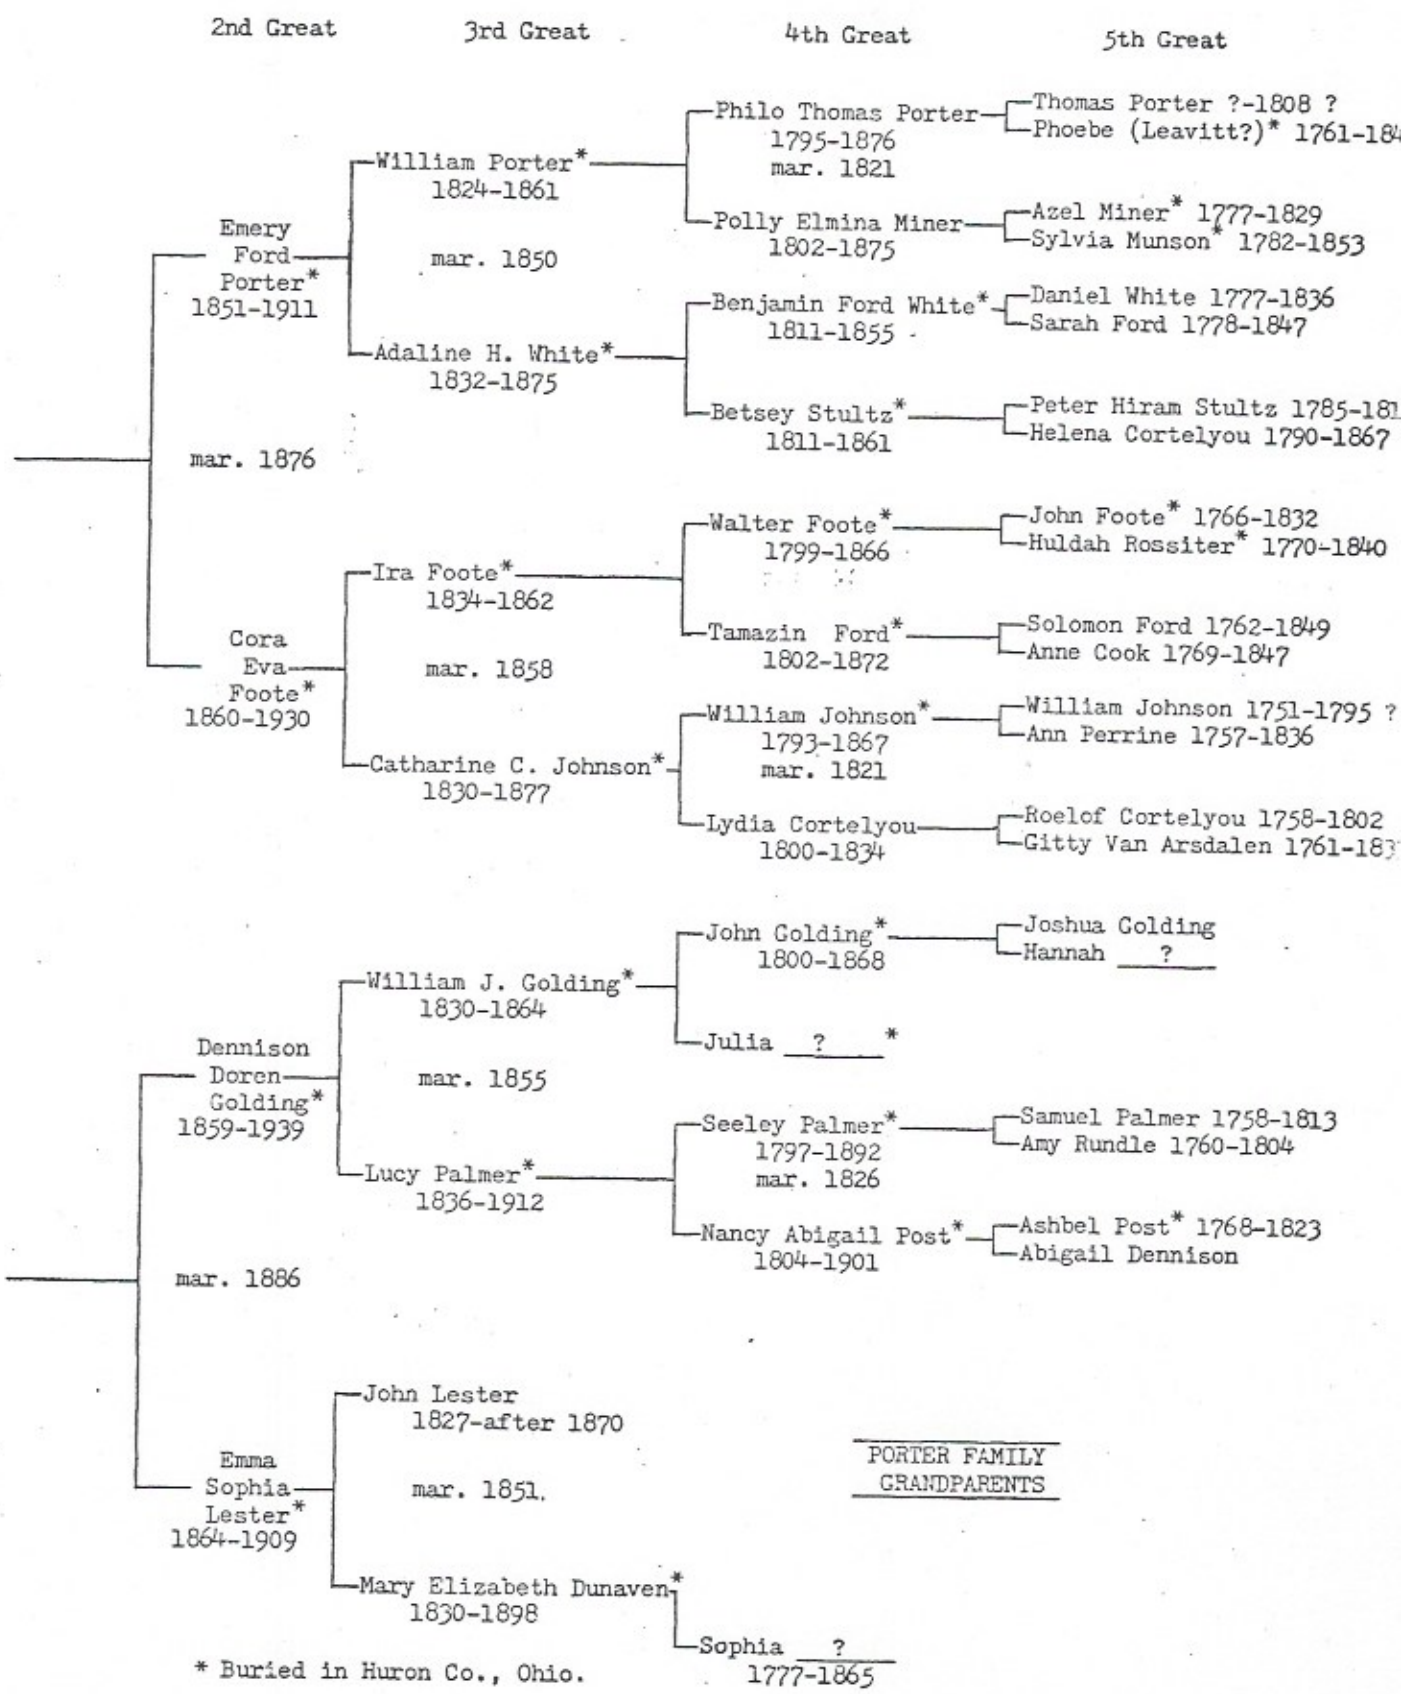

Sincerely,

Since would be Blaine
